A pro-tem box party dance was held in the K. of L. hall last evening, which was attended by 30 couples. Music was furnished by Gilbertson's orchestra of three pieces, and the occasion was one of the most enjoyable that has been held in the hall this winter. During the evening the box lunches brought by the ladies were eaten.

The ladies and pastors' union will meet with Mrs. E. D. Beckley, 6 Park street, Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. All members of the congregation are asked to be present and help with sewing for the needy. Any who have garments they are willing to donate, please bring them. If the articles need repairing, kindly see that the material is on hand for mending.

A Biograph picture, "All on Account of the Milk," the Dreamland theatre is advertising for to-night. It is a comedy of a modern "Horn and Leander." Cupid takes the part of the milk man, and there are "things doing." Benefit for the Lumpers to-night. Usual 20 per cent. of gross receipts. Whole entertainment new and meritorious.

To-night at the opera house Clara Turner and her company will present the great French play, "Madame Du Barry." It is seldom, indeed, that a play of this character is given at popular prices, and its performance by the Clara Turner company is said to compare very favorably with the higher priced companies. An added attraction for to-night will be the Mills brothers, two well-known Barre young men, who are about to enter vaudeville in a neat singing and dancing act.
